The Realty Auction Market.

The Realty Auction Market.

There was a noticeable falling off in business in the Vesey street exchange last week, fewer properties being disposed of than during any other week this month. Of the six parcels that made up the schedule three were sold. The most valuable was a twelve with the was knocked down for $100,000. At the Bronx exchange on Monday George W. Bard conducted a voluntary sale of vacant lots on White Plains, Barthold, Cedar and Magenta avenues. The lots, with the exception of those withdrawn, were bought by J. A. Stevenson and Herman Abrecht at an average of about $2,125 a lot. The sale of 131, building sites at Edgemere, L. I., by R. E. Simon of L. J. Phillips & Co. on Baturday was attended by more than three hundred people. The bidding was lively, and within half an hour every lot put up was sold.

This week there will be only four offerings, all in Manhattan, in the lower part of the borough. Joseph P. Day will start the week at the Vesey street rooms on Monday by offering the four story and basement brownstone building at No. 10 East Forty-seventh sireet, now occupied by the Nathan Hale School. On the same day he will sell the northwest corner of South and Roosevet. On Thursday Mr. Day will close the week by offering in foreclosure proceedings No. 68 west Sixtyniath street, a four story and basement brownstone front dwelling, 120 feet east of Columbus avenue.

On Labor Day Apctioneer Harry E. Colwell will put up at public suction for the Sound labore Realty and Title Company eighty-two building lots at New Rochelle. The lots adjoin the Boston post road and one the station of the subway extension.
